SAYS ROAD IS VERY BAD.

A Correspondent Thinks the Road Between Daytona and Holly Hill Could Be Improved.

Editor Daily News:—
A commendatory paragraph in Saturday's Daily News on Florida good roads, including the Ormond-Daytona road, would challenge some remarks from a resident.

This piece of road from Daytona to Holly Hill has been in bad condition the five months of the tourist season. In the early part, after the rains it was a succession of chuck holes and mud puddles, later it dried into a heavy sand road. After that, it received a surface dressing or filling of loose river sand. The writer had occasion to make the round trip to Ormond and back on the day the above paragraph appeared and it was all he could do to get through in a runabout. No idea of making time, but it was nip and tuck to keep from being stalled. Beyond Holly Hill, the road improves, but has a number of bad holes, too big to be avoided even if one has the road to oneself and which will turn to mud puddles with a rain.

In Ormond the road is most excellent, as well as immediately this side for a distance, showing by contrast what a good shell or marl road ought to be and which it should be at the Daytona end. The touring public is given to understand that Florida has the material and is the home of the famous shell road, the equal of the best macadamized or paved road in the world. But if this particular stretch of road, which is widely quoted as a connecting link on the proposed Jacksonville-Miami auto route, represents the ideal Florida road, the illusion of a touring trip for pleasure is soon dispelled, and general distrust created.

This road being at the very threshold of Daytona—anxious to advertise itself to the tourist—this is a poor advertisement indeed.

TOURIST.

Died.

Mrs. Sarah E. Stuckert, of Philadelphia, died at Seabreeze, Sunday, from phthisis pulmonalis at the advanced age of 65 years. Her daughter, Mrs. Emma M. Campbell, was with her at the time of her death.

The deceased spent the winter at Seabreeze, and had quite a number of acquaintances among both residents and tourists.

The remains will be shipped this afternoon to Philadelphia, where the interment will take place.

A Five Hundred party given at the New Seaside Inn, last Friday evening, proved a most enjoyable occasion. Prizes were awarded to the best players and during the evening dainty refreshments were served. The ladies who won prizes were Mrs. W. N. Naylor, Evanson, Ill.; Miss Alida Covett, of Washington, D. C. The gentlemen winners were Geo. Anicker, of Peoria, Ill.; Bentley Pope, of Coshocton, Ohio, and I. N. Battenfield, of Cleveland. The guests of this popular house will enjoy another card party on Tuesday evening.

A meeting of the Halifax Rifles will be held Tuesday evening in the Armory. There are quite a number of new applications for membership, and they will probably be acted on at this meeting.

Among the charming coterie of attractive young people at The Clarendon at present, who among them carries off the palm as the belle of the house? Strange as it may seem all the girls are equally popular, but from close observation the honors may go to little Miss Helen Buell Potter, for she certainly creates the greatest sensation whenever she enters the lobby of the hotel in the arms of her young, pretty mother. Miss Potter dresses her juvenile daughter with such exquisite taste she could well be taken for a dainty, petite French doll.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hayner, Miss Eva-land Brown, of Troy, O., and E. E. Seabiey, and Roger Allen, of New York, guests of The Clarendon, formed a pleasant party who spent several days at the Inlet sheephead fishing. Mr. Allen landed an 8-pound sheephead, while Mr. Hayner's dinner, a la Allen, while Mr. Hayner's 5-pounder was served a la Hayner.

Owing to the fact that Mayor E. E. Johnson, of Daytona Beach, will spend the summer away, he has decided not to be a candidate for reelection to the office of Mayor. Much interest is being manifested in the Daytona Beach election, and it is expected that a full complement of voters will turn out and cast their ballots.

PALMETTO CLUB MEETING.

Election of Officers and Other Important Business Will Come Up Next Thursday Afternoon.

The annual meeting of the Palmetto Club will be held Thursday afternoon at the club house of the association on Orange avenue.

The reports of officers, the president's address, election of officers, and reports of committees, will be among the business to come up.

The Palmetto Club, during the past several months has made great strides. There have been a number of new members taken in which are a credit to the club. For some weeks past the club's headquarters have been in their new club house on Orange avenue, east of St. Mary's Episcopal Church.

Death of H. D. Sizer.

H. D. Sizer, of Cleveland, died in Daytona from an attack of heart disease, Friday night, aged 67 years.

The deceased came to Daytona in January, and the change was of little benefit to him.

Robert Howard, his son-in-law, arrived here today from Cleveland, and the remains will be shipped to that place tomorrow for interment.

Mr. Sizer had many friends in Daytona who are grieved to hear of his demise.

A small shooting club, organized at the Colonades Hotel, meets in the park two or three times a week for target practice and shooting contest. The gentlemen taking greatest interest in the club are Frank D. Creamer and sons, Frank, Jr., and Bryon, Ross Campbell and Clarence Voss. So far, Mr. Creamer, Sr., has proved the best shot.

The Sloan and Heywood Comedy and Vaudeville Company, which was scheduled to make their appearance at the Opera House Monday and Tuesday evening of this week, have cancelled their engagement. Manager Osborn thinks that before the close of the season there will be other shows which he can present to the public.

THOSE WHO REJECTED OFFER

Offer of Mrs. J. B. Stetson To the University.—They Agreed To Give $100,000 Conditionally.

The last issue of the Volusia County Record has the following:
"Mrs. John B. Stetson has placed the trustees of Stetson University in a rather unenviable position. She offers to give the University $100,000, provided all the trustees resign. The question at Stetson now is: Are the present trustees worth more than $100,000 to the University?—Tampa Tribune.

"Those trustees who voted against the reorganization of the Board and not to accept Mr. and Mrs. Stetson's proposition to give the $100,000: W. S. Jennings, John F. Forbes, D. V. Fletcher, B. F. Camp, W. H. Stewart (not Judge Stewart), E. B. Solomon, W. A. Hobson. "Those who voted to resign and to accept the $100,000 offered by Mr. Stetson two days previous to his death, and renewed after his death by Mrs. Stetson, were: J. T. Clark, H. A. DeLand, F. C. Edwards, Dr. Hulley, S. V. Hough, Rev. T. J. Longdon, F. B. Moody, J. E. Oates, E. O. Painter, T. C. Search, T. J. Sparkman, H. B. Stevens, S. A. Wood, S. B. Wright, Mr. Conrad being absent."

City Council Meeting.

The regular session of the city solons will be held this evening at the City Hall. This session of the Council will probably be an interesting one, as there are a number of important matters to come up.

Canoeing has been taken up this season with much zest and enthusiasm on the beautiful Halifax river. Chester Woodward, of Topeka, Kans., who is a guest of the Colonades, has been the most active in renewing this most delightful sport in a canoe built for two, for he never goes alone.

Frank Bianchi, of Seabreeze, as commander of his launch, "Bianchi," assisted by his attractive sister, Miss Bianchi, as pilot, have entertained most entertained a jolly bunch of friends with water parties this season.

ORMOND A GAY SCENE.

Many Tourists at the Hotel Ormond and All Are Enjoying Life. Many Diversions.

Seldom has the Ormond had a more brilliant season. Although 3 weeks of Lent have passed, there seems to be little let-up on the various diversions. The fascination of an automobile ride on the grandest beach in the world does not diminish, and a visit here is hardly complete without it. The Tomoka river trip is growing in popularity and never has the Princess Isena carried more passengers up this marvelously beautiful river than during the past month. The new roads built especially for automobiles have proved a very valuable addition to Ormond's attractions. The tennis courts, on the river bank, are very pleasantly situated and are largely patronized these days. A great deal of interest has centered at the golf links recently.

Quite an interesting event in the golf line was the children's putting contest, which was played Wednesday. Two very pretty cups were put up by E. A. Hamilton and won by Wm. A. Adriance, Jr., and Geo. S. Merritt, Jr. The entry list showed Wm. A. Adriance, Jr., Archibald Ford MacNichol, Arthur H. Merritt, Edward Ford MacNichol, Dorothy Seaman, Dorothy A. Adriance, George S. Merritt, Jr., Dorothy Moore, Gladys Stanton, Agnes Dodge and Donald Bellman.

At the First Annual Spring Meet on Pablo Beach, April 9 to 12, several prizes will be given for automobile and motor-bicycle races, some of which are open only to Florida, others to Georgia and Florida. There are a number of amateur drivers and riders in Daytona who may wish to compete. If so full particulars and entry blanks can be secured from John B. Parkinson.

Mr. and Mrs. James O. Wynn, of Atlanta, are in the city, guests of The Despland. Mr. Wynn is the owner of the yacht that was deserted by the sailors off Daytona Beach several weeks ago. He is a prominent insurance man of Atlanta and he and his wife have spent the winter on the East Coast.

RUNAWAY WAS EXCITING.

Mrs. Charles Hammond Thrown Violently
From a Buggy Near Fairview
Avenue and Beach Street.

Mrs. Charles Hammond was thrown from a buggy violently Sunday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock, near the intersection of Fairview Avenue and Beach Street.

The cause of the accident was due to a runaway, and the animal making a sharp turn, throwing the lady out with great force to the ground. Dr. Rawlins was in the vicinity and picked the injured lady up and carried her to her home, on Cottage Avenue. She was severely bruised about the head and body, but her injuries were not considered serious.

The finishing touches are being put on the residence on Valley Street, at Seabreeze, for Ronald E. Olds, the automobile manufacturer. It is a neat dwelling and will be occupied by Mr. Olds and his family next season.

The street sprinkler was out early this morning, and did effective work in laying the dust on Beach Street. If put into use Sunday morning it would have been the means of laying the dust, which rolled in great clouds the entire day.

J. C. Butler and L. W. Williams, real estate agents, doing business under the firm name of Butler & Williams, have dissolved partnership. Both parties, however, will continue in the real estate business. Mr. Butler, in addition, will make a business of clearing land.

Messrs. Marting and Loy, managers of the Casino, at Daytona Beach, scored quite a success in the dance given there Saturday evening. The floor was in excellent condition, and those who took part report having a delightful evening. The music furnished was very good.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Sims spent Saturday in Daytona enroute to their home in Jacksonville, having just returned from a pleasant trip down the East Coast as far south as Miami. They spent the day here the guests of C. O. Chamberlain, proprietor of the Palmetto House, and were driven to Ormond in the afternoon, where they took the train for Jacksonville.

NOTICE.—Corporation Taxes of Daytona Beach may be paid at Town Hall, daily, from 4 to 6 p. m., until April 1st. 20-1 Theo. Carter, Tax Collector.

REMAINING HERE LATE.

Tourists Beginning to Learn That it Does Not Pay to Return North Too Early in the Season.

Southern winter travelers are beginning to learn that it does not pay to return North too early in the spring, says the Jacksonville Times-Union.

About the local hotels yesterday, the verandas were filled with visitors and many were discussing the difference in the climate of Florida and the Northern cities during this period of the year.

Quite a number of tourists who had expected to leave for their homes yesterday, have decided to postpone their departure until the weather settles, thus escaping the cold weather now prevailing in the North.

The warm weather now in Florida does not mean that the same conditions prevail in the North. One might leave here with the thermometer comfortably warm, and run into the opposite with cold elsewhere, which would entirely undo all the benefits derived from the balmy Florida climate.

There are no more pleasant months in the year in Florida than March and April, and even May. The visitors are learning that it will be but a few years before these months will bring more visitors to Florida.

Reports from throughout the State show that the hotels are well filled, and the tourists are enjoying the balmy climate, not even mentioning their departure for their homes.

J. H. McCrory, of Fond du Lac, Wis., W. H. Tallman, of Wheeling, W. Va., and L. C. Case, of Hendersonville, N. C., are recent arrivals at The Despland.

WE CLOSE AT 6 O'CLOCK P. M.

Peasant and Pigs.

A clever smuggling trick has been played on a customs officer on the Russo-German frontier. An innocent looking peasant reported to the officer a plot for getting a large number of pigs across the frontier. The method, he said, would be to drive across at intervals of half an hour, 3, 6, 12 and 200 pigs, the smugglers arguing that if the first three lots could be sent over there would be no trouble with the 200. The officer was naturally on the alert. In accordance with the peasant's statement three pigs were driven over, then six, followed by twelve. All were allowed to pass, and preparations were made to receive the 200. But no more pigs appeared, and the twenty-one animals admitted had in the meantime been lodged in safety.—Berlin Cor. OFFERED TO GIVE LIBRARY.

Andrew Carnegie Makes Liberal Offer to Stetson University.—$40,000 If Equal Amount Is Raised.

Andrew Carnegie, of New York City, has consented to give to Stetson University $40,000 for a library building provided the University raises an equal amount for its maintenance in new edowment. Mr. Carnegie is opposed to giving to institutions when the immediate control is exercised through a denominational convention or its boards.

It was explained to Mr. Carnegie that the University is a Baptist institution, that its president and three-fourths of its trustees must always be Baptists. That Mr. Stetson in his previous gifts stipulated that the buildings should revert in case any inemburancer should be placed on the property or the Baptist control secured by the charter be changed. Mr. Stetson was fully aware of the effort to secure the gift of Mr. Carnegie and his offer of the $100,000 was made with the understanding that a portion of it might be used to cover Mr. Carnegie's gift if needed.

Chinese Cooking Secrets.

"I once attended a mandarin's banquet in Peking," said an ex-consul, "and it was the most remarkable feast I ever sat down to. One course appeared to be plain hard boiled eggs. The eggs came on unadorned. Their shells were intact, and yet, when we broke in to them, we found that they contained nuts and sweetmeats. Another course was whole oranges, with unbroken skins, yet inside the oranges were five different kinds of jelly. The Chinese guests took these two courses as a matter of course, but I, in amazement, asked our host how on earth they had been concocted. He smiled and shook his head.

"Ah, that," he said, "is my cook's secret."

Warren and Jefferson.

Joseph Jefferson was playing Sheridan's comedy of "The Rivals" in Boston on one occasion many years ago. His version of the play had been arranged in such a way as to give Bob Acres considerably more prominence than the author originally intended, occasionally at the expense of the other characters. William Warren, the old comedian, sat the play out and at its conclusion was asked, "How do you like Jefferson's Bob Acres?"

"Capital, capital," replied Warren, "and Sheridan twenty miles away."

Carlyle's Way.

Carlyle appears in a brief reminiscence from the pen of Perry Fitzgerald thus: The thing with Carlyle was to send out for a long churchwarden in city pipes and a screw of tobacco, which put him in great good humor. He talked to his plate, as you might say. If anybody said anything from which he dissented you would hear him murmuring, "Oh, the poor old fool; a regular pulpit fool!"

More Light.

A case was being tried on the charge of selling impure whisky. The whisky was offered in evidence. Jury retired to try the evidence. Judge (presently): "What is the verdict? Foreman of the Thirtiety Jury—Your honor, we want more evidence. San Francisco News Letter.
